

Friendly Reminder:

As a general reminder please do not block the Fire Hydrants or push snow onto the middle of the street! This delays emergency situations for access to the fire hydrants. When snow is pushed onto the street this creates hard ridges and makes it difficult for others travelling on the streets.

Snow from driveways and private walkways should remain on your own property.

We thank everyone for helping to move snow when needed.

